the "I order a ticket with an obligation to pay" button, which is visible at the very bottom of the page.

6. Registration for the Conference will be confirmed by the Organiser by way of an email sent to the email address provided during registration. This email will indicate all details of how to pay for the Ticket. In a subsequent email, the Organiser will also provide a Pro Forma Invoice with details of how to make the payment. Payment for the Ticket can only be made by bank transfer to the Organiser's bank account.

7. Some types of Tickets are intended only for people who have any certificate issued by the organizer, in order to purchase such a Ticket, a legible scan or photo of the certificate should be attached to the registration form, allowing the Organiser to verify that the person purchasing the Ticket has an certificate issued by the organizer. Failure to send a scan or photo of the certificate or sending the document in an illegible form, which makes verification impossible, will result in not being able to purchase a Ticket.

8. As a rule, payment for the Ticket should be made in PLN, however, for those interested in payment in a different currency (USD/EUR), the Organiser may issue a Pro Forma Invoice in a different currency, chosen by the person registering for the Conference. If you wish to make payment in a foreign currency (USD/EUR), please inform the Organiser by writing an appropriate comment in the "Comments" section when placing your order. Upon receipt of information about the desire to make payment in a foreign currency, the Organiser will issue and deliver a pro forma invoice in the currency chosen by the Participant. The price of the Ticket will be converted into the chosen currency on the basis of the average NBP exchange rate for a given currency published by the NBP on the last working day preceding the day of registration for the Conference.

9. In order to finalise registration for the Conference and purchase the Ticket, payment of the entire price of the Ticket must be made within 7 days (from the date of receiving the email with the Pro Forma Invoice). Upon receipt of payment for the Ticket, the Organiser will deliver the Ticket electronically within 7 days of receiving payment by sending it to the email address indicated during registration.

10. The moment the Organiser receives the payment for the Ticket, the contract between the Participant and the Organiser is concluded, the subject of which is the provision of the Organiser's service consisting in the possibility of participation in the Conference in accordance with the selected type of the Ticket. The content of the concluded agreement, including the scope of obligations arising from it, is determined by the provisions of these Conference Regulations and the type of Ticket purchased.

11. The received Ticket should be presented at the entrance to the Conference in a printed version or in an electronic version on a mobile device, allowing the Organiser's personnel to verify the QR code placed on the Ticket.

12. Persons who register for the Conference but fail to pay for the Ticket by the deadline referred to in paragraph 9 above will be automatically removed from the registration process, which will be equivalent to deletion of their registration.

ACCESS CODES

13. As part of B2B distribution, the Organiser will offer its contractors the possibility to purchase Access Codes. The rules for the acquisition of Access Codes will be defined by separate agreements between the Organiser and the entity purchasing the Access Codes.

14. A person who receives an Access Code shall be entitled to purchase a Ticket in accordance with the provisions set out above, provided that:

    a) On the Website page, in the "Type of participation" field, select the option "I want to use an access code" and then enter the access code you received, provide your personal details and click the "I order" button,
    b) Purchasing a Ticket using an Access Code does not require payment for the Ticket, thus the Organiser will not generate a pro forma invoice and the person purchasing the Ticket will not be required to make payment,
    c) A specific type of Ticket is assigned to an Access Code, and therefore the person using the Access Code will not be able to choose, change the type of Ticket that has been assigned to the Access Code,
    d) The conclusion of the agreement between the Organiser and the person using the Access Code occurs at the moment of positive verification by the Organiser of the registration application made using the Access Code. The subject of the concluded agreement is provision by the Organiser of the service which consists in enabling the participation in the Conference to the extent resulting from the ordered Ticket. The content of the concluded agreement, including the scope of obligations resulting from it, is determined by the provisions of these Regulations and the type of purchased Ticket.

SPEAKERS AND PARTNERS

15. Each Speaker and Partner will receive a special Access Code from the Organiser which will allow them to purchase an Entry Ticket. To purchase an Entry Ticket on the Website, in the 'Type of participation' field, select the option 'I want to use an Access Code' and then enter the Access Code received, provide your personal details and click the 'I order' button.

16. The Access Code that each Speaker and Partner will receive is assigned a specific type of Entry Ticket, so the person using the Access Code will not be able to choose or change the type of Entry Ticket that has been assigned to that Access Code.

www.testwarez.pl | www.sjsi.org | www.podboj.it

17. The purchase of an Entry Ticket using an Access Code does not require any payment.

18. Upon verification of the registration application received, the Organiser will, no later than 5 days from the date of submission of the registration form, confirm the entitlement to participate in the Conference as a Speaker or Partner and provide an Entry ticket. The Entry ticket will be delivered electronically by sending it to the e-mail address indicated during registration. The received Entry ticket must be presented at the entrance to the Conference in a printed version or in an electronic version on a mobile device.

19. Upon delivery of the Entry ticket and confirmation by the Organiser of the terms and conditions of participation in the Conference, an agreement is concluded between the Organiser and the person purchasing the Entry ticket (Partner or Speaker). The subject of the concluded Agreement is the Organiser's provision of services consisting in enabling participation in the Conference to the extent resulting from the selected type of the Entry ticket. The content of the concluded Agreement, including the scope of obligations resulting from it, is determined by the provisions of these Conference Regulations and the type of the Entry ticket.

20. If nothing else follows from the provisions of these Conference Regulations or from separate agreements, the Partner and the Speaker shall be entitled to all the rights and obligations of the Participant, with the exception of the obligation to pay for the Entry ticket. Thus, all regulations of these Conference Regulations that apply to Participants shall apply to the Partner and the Speaker.

4. The Organiser is entitled to grant further sub-licences to the Materials.
5. The Organiser is obliged to respect the personal copyright of the Speaker, in particular the integrity of the content and form of the Materials.
6. By accepting these Conference Regulations, the speaker declares that he/she will be the sole author of the Materials, as well as that at the time of publication of the Materials at the Conference he/she will be entitled to exclusive, full and unlimited property copyright and moral rights to the Materials presented by him/her.
7. By accepting these Conference Regulations, the Speaker undertakes that the Materials will be the result of his/her author's work and that they will not infringe any rights vested in third parties, in particular author's economic rights, author's personal rights or industrial property rights. Furthermore, the Materials shall not infringe good morals, any rights of privacy or publicity, or any patents, protective rights granted for: industrial design, utility model or trademark, as well as any copyright, trade secret, recording rights, performance rights, as well as any other rights of third parties. Furthermore, the Speaker warrants that no content contained in the Materials shall be obscene, defamatory or that would otherwise violate any act of law in any territory or generate an obligation on the part of the Organiser to pay to a third party an appropriate benefit such as compensation or damages.
8. Materials must not be promotional or advertise any products or services. The lecture and the Materials should only cover substantive aspects of the lecture topic and other forms of content presentation.
9. The Speaker shall be fully liable to the Organiser for any legal defects in the Materials, which means that if the Organiser suffers any damage in connection with the delivery of the lecture during the Conference and the use of the Materials, the Speaker shall be obliged to compensate the Organiser in full.
